

My Moneycast - 4pm, Thursday 7th May All social media platforms

The youth charity MyBnk is launching a weekly financial education livestream for 16-25 year olds.

My Moneycast is a 30 minute show focussing on personal finance news and features explainers, special guests and Q&As. It aims to bring money to life for young adults in a fun and engaging way whilst tackling some of the big issues effecting their income, benefits, housing and employment.

Live broadcasting on all major social media platforms, My Moneycast viewers can ask questions in the comment feeds and have their queries answered by a financial education expert.

This week features news on DEBT AND BORROWING - how it works and how to do it safely, interest and sorting priority and non-priority debts and credit scores.
